Featuring

Mark Levin

Losing his hearing at age three never slowed Mark Levin down. Growing up in Chicago, Mark was inspired to pick up a guitar at 12 years old, and he never looked back. He currently works with D-PAN: Deaf Professional Arts Network. Inspired by the madness of the beat generation, Mark has been writing poetry for over 15 years. Beyond poetry, he also plays guitar, bass, drums, DJ's, has been involved with theatre, film, music festivals and music videos, and he shows no sign of slowing down.

Cody Walker

Cody is the author of Shuffle and Breakdown and the co-editor of Alive at the Center: An Anthology of Poems from the Pacific Northwest. His work appears in Slate, The Yale Review, Salon, The Los Angeles Times, and The Best American Poetry; it's also featured on the Cartoon Bureau Blog of The New Yorker. He teaches English at the University of Michigan and blogs regularly for The Kenyon Review. His second poetry collection, The Self-Styled No-Child, will be published in 2016.

M. L. Liebler & The Good Shepherd Poetry Band

The Good Shepherd Poetry Band features Blue Room guitarist Charlie Palazzola, The Muggs' Tony DeNardo, drummer Lou DeCillis, and Eminem Publisher and owner of 54 Sound Joel Martin on Harmonica.

M. L. Liebler is the first Poet Laureate of St. Clair Shores and an internationally known and widely published Detroit poet, university professor, literary arts activist and arts organizer, and he is the author of 13 books including the award-winning Wide Awake in Someone Else's Dream.
